Cables

Maritim Hotel
Cologne, Germany
14-16 September 2021

Running for 21 years, AMI's Cables conference is recognised as one of the leading international conference for the Wire and Cable industry.

The event regularly attracts over 250 international delegates, including some of the biggest cable manufacturers, and is complemented by an interactive exhibition. It is the ideal place to meet with your industry peers and expand your network with focused professionals whilst learning about new trends and developments within the industry.

At the event, the latest information on the market, growing end-use applications, innovations in materials, testing procedures and cable manufacturing processes are discussed to reflect the rapidly changing business environment in which cable producers, their suppliers and customers operate.

Cables 2021 is an essential platform for all stakeholders in this demanding industry to understand and discuss the latest trends, developments and innovations allowing you to stay competitive and to discover new business opportunities.

Wherever you sit in the cables industry, either as a cable producer, end-user, specifier, consultant, raw material supplier, compounder, equipment manufacturer or an industry association, this event provides you with a great opportunity to meet professionals from around the world, all in one place.

“ AMI's Cables conference is a valuable and important annual meeting of the industry with good opportunities for exchange and growth in knowledge and expertise”

Materials Development Engineer, CORNING
OPTICAL COMMUNICATIONS GmbH & Co. KG
